employees and Renault's partner Agencies, members of their families ('family', under the Rules, means persons who live in the same household and their direct and/or collateral ascendants and descendants) cannot participate either.

In order to participate in the Competition, the Participant must:

- (i) Access the Page
- (ii) Open the card of the day
- (iii) Answer one question.

Once answered, fans are registered for the contest game and the gift of the day. As a gift for entering the contest, participants will be able to download the visual of the day/share the visual of the day on social media.

The Participant is informed and accepts that (i) the information entered on the Page (i.e name, surname) give proof of his/her identity and (ii) bind him from their submission.

The Participant undertakes to submit correct and complete information.

Any incorrect or incomplete information will not be taken into account and will lead to the participation in the Competition being null and void.

Article 4: Presentation of the free competition without any obligation to purchase

The Competition mechanics will run from December 1st 2019 to December 24th 2019. This period will be divided into three (3) phases: (i) Participation, (ii) Random draw (iii), Contacting Winners by private message.

Period	Date
Participation	Everyday from the 1 st of December to the 24 th of December 2019, from 12AM until 11:59PM the same day.
Random Draw	Everyday from the 1 st of December to the 19 th December 2019 for prizes between 1 and 19. On the 2 nd of January 2020 for prizes between 20 and 24.
Contacting Winners by private message	Everyday from the 1 st of December to the 19 th December 2019 for prizes between 1 and 19. On the 2 nd of January 2020 for prizes between 20 and 24.

Competition rules:

24 cards will be published on several social media platforms between the 1st and 24th of December. One card is published everyday .

The social media posts will redirect the Participants on the Page with one (1) overall advent calendar. One card opens every day and runs from 12AM to 11:59PM the same day and contains one price each with Twenty-four (24) Prizes in total.

In each house, Participants are asked to answer one question. Once answered, a new visual is being revealed and the Participants need to fill in: name, first name, email address, country and accept the terms and conditions to be registered for the draw. When this is done, the Participants are registered for the contest game and the Prize of the day.

Article 6: Collecting prizes

Prizes will be sent everyday from the 1st of December to the 19th December for prizes between 1 and 19. On the 2nd of January 2020 for prizes between 20 and 24.

Participants need to fill in: name, first name, email address, country and accept terms and conditions to be registered for the draw.

The Twenty-Four (24) Winners will be contacted by email by the Organising Company, which will notify them that they have won the Competition and indicate them the modalities for obtaining the Prize including asking their address.

On receipt of this notification, the Twenty-four (24) Winners will have a period of 72 (seventy-two) hours in which to inform the Organising Company that they have received the winner's notification and to provide the information required by this letter by return message.

In the event that the Winner fails to reply within the period of 72 (seventy-two) hours, the Organising Company will attribute the Prize to the Substitute Winner under the same notification and reply conditions described in the paragraph above.

If the Substituted Winner fails to reply within the given period, the Prize will not be given out but will remain the property of the Organising Company.

Without prejudice to any court proceedings and its right to cancel a Participant's registration, the Organising Company is not required to send any prize to the Winner if he has not correctly entered his/her personal details when registering or if he has clearly and by any means falsified the competition results or if he does not comply with the Rules.

The Prize cannot be disputed, exchanged for its equivalent in cash, exchanged or replaced.

The Winners will be informed of any changes, where possible.

In the event that the Prize offered is no longer available due to circumstances outside the control of the Organizing Company, the latter undertakes to offer a prize of an equivalent value.

Article 7: Advertising and promotion of the Winner

By accepting the Prize, the Winners authorize their image and personal details (first name, name) to be used ex gratia in all of the Organising Company's public communication media and at all public, promotional, events associated with the Competition, worldwide, for a maximum period of one (1) year, without such use giving rise to other rights or compensation other than the winning Prize. Acceptance by the Winners of their Prize does not oblige the Organising Company to publish their name.

Article 8: Right to access and rectify

In compliance with the so-called 'Computer and Data Protection' Law 78-17 of 6 January 1978 on computers, files and protection, any person completing the registration on the Page benefits from a right to access, rectify and delete data concerning him by contacting the Organising Company. Such rights can be exercised by sending a private message to Renault on the Page.

Persons who exercise their right to delete data concerning them before the end of the Competition will be deemed to have terminated their participation.

In compliance with the current regulations, the information collected in the context of the Competition will be used exclusively by the Organizing Company and will not be sold or given to third parties in any manner whatsoever.

Article 9: Liability

The Organising Company's liability is strictly limited to the provision of the Prize actually and validly won.

The Organising Company cannot, in any circumstances, be held liable for the fraudulent use of rights of connection or attribution of a prize to a Participant. In light of the nature of the Internet, such as the unrestricted obtaining of information and the difficulty if not impossibility in controlling use that may be made of it by third parties, the Organising Company cannot be held liable for any improper use of such information.

The Organising Company cannot be liable in the event of malfunctions in the Internet, telephone lines or receiving equipment that prevents the proper functioning of the Competition. In addition, it cannot, under any circumstances, be liable for delivery problems or lost emails or letters.

The Organising Company cannot be liable in the event of any technical, equipment or software failure or anomaly of any kind (virus, bug, etc) occurring in the Participant's computer system.

The Organising Company cannot be liable in the event of a malfunction due to human error or problem that has an electrical origin.

The Organising Company reserves the right to shorten, extend, postpone, modify or cancel the Competition if required by the circumstances. In any event, it cannot be liable for such changes.

The Organising Company will attempt to ensure that the Competition can be accessed at all times, without being bound by any related obligation. The Organising Company can at any time, in particular for any technical, updating or maintenance reasons, suspend access to the Page and the Competition contained on it. The Organising Company will not, under any circumstances, be liable for such interruptions and their consequences.

Article 10: Compliance with the rules

Participating in the Bot Competition involves honest behaviour, meaning total compliance with the rules and the rights of other Participants.

Participants are prohibited from implementing or seeking to implement any participation process that does not strictly comply with the principles of the Competition and the Rules.

The Organising Company reserves the right to eliminate any person from the Competition who does not full imply with the Rules. The Organising Company also reserves the right to bring proceedings against any person who attempts to the fraud or impede the proper functioning of the Competition.

The Organising Company can decide to cancel the Competition if it clearly appears that fraud has occurred in any form whatsoever, in particular, computer fraud, in the context of participation in the Competition or the choosing of Winners.

The Organising Company reserves the right to carry out any verifications relating to compliance with this Article and all of the Rules.

Article 11: Modifications to the Rules

The Organising Company reserves the right to modify the Rules and, in particular, the Competition rules and the prizes attributed, essentially in order to take account of changes to the law, regulations or administrative regulations, or as a result of judicial decisions, recommendations issued by organizations in charge of administering the Internet and the Organizing Company's sales policy. Each modification will be the subject of a supplementary agreement to the Rules and will be filed with the process server, as were the Rules.

Article 12: Filing of the Rules

The Rules can be consulted at any time on the Page throughout the duration of the Competition.

A copy of the Regulation may be sent, free of charge, to any person making the request.

Article 13: Disputes

The Rules are governed by French law.

In the event of a dispute or claim, for any reason whatsoever, demands must be sent to the Organising Company within a maximum period of 1 (one) month after the Competition closes by way of standard letter. Such letter must state the precise date of participation in the competition, the full personal details of the Participant and the exact grounds for the dispute. No other method of dispute or claim will be accepted. The decisions by the Organizer cannot be appealed: The Organising Company only can rule on any issue relating to the application of the Rules or any omissions in it.
